reaching out

Hello again, I hope things are going well for you.

My name is Glenn Cossar and I am a published author, working across several genres of life, fantasy, and children's stories. My work primarily is based on the amazing lives and experiences of everyday people doing incredible things.

I draw on my own life experience as well as those of individuals who have trusted me as a life coach to support them to overcome enormous challenges. On each occasion such experiences offer not only gripping stories of courage and resilience but also of success on a very personal level.

My stories targeting children are pure fun and fantasy. The more laughs I get the better that I think my writing is. I also like to sprinkle stories with my own brand of drawings that are not only childlike but relatable to anyone who believes they can draw!

Say high to Glenn at the Fair

This year (2024) will be our third time attending the Book Fair and I am getting excited about presenting the third instalment of my "Hope" series.

Life tends to surprise us with many twists and turns and it is important that we make good choices along the way. This is the focus of my next book and I sincerely hope that you enjoy it as much as the other two installments.

Additionally I will be speaking at the Fair about my "Hope series," and look forward to meeting new readers as well as those who have supported me over the years.

books, books, books!

Writing stories never stops

I have been writing now for over ten years and the fun never stops. I have been privileged to have four books published and read by hundreds of readers and I have receive very positive feedback. This is something that keeps me going.

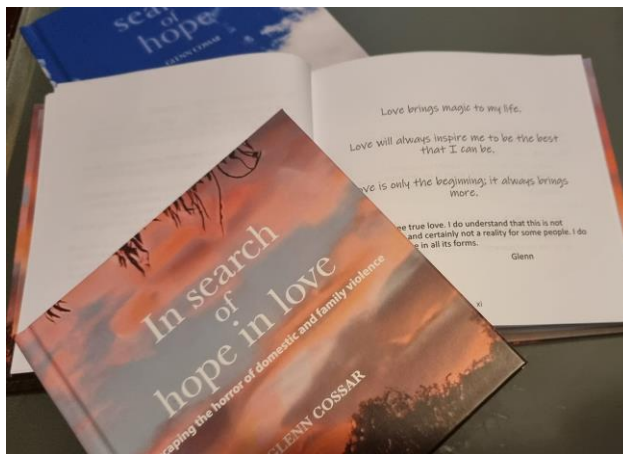

I am currently writing the final part of my series on Hope and the latest publication. Orders can be placed on my website or with my publisher Tiffany House Australia.

So much of what I write is from my own experiences either as a Life Coach and Business Coach or from my own personal life experience. I am particularly excited about my last release “In Search of Hope in Love.”

it deals with fictional characters who are experiencing the horror of domestic and family violence and the many ways people not only cope but recover and find meaningful lives past this experience.

I have more stories about Hope to follow and I am working on a series of children’s picture books that are about pure fun and fantasy. Please keep an eye out for all of these new releases when they are advertised.
